

Australian X Up/pass up Plan MLM Software

Australian x-up plan/pass up plan is the advanced version of unilevel compensation plan. In this plan, the members associated with the plan can get rewards for the sales done by them. It focuses on the sales based on the target of recruiting new members into the network and the corresponding bonus are distributed to the members.

How Does the Australian X Up Plan Work?

Australian X Up plan follows the structure of unilevel plan and it works on target basis. The structure of this plan consists the term 'x' up and it can be 2-up, 3-up, etc. When a member 'x' achieves a particular target, his/her sponsor can earn bonus depending on the efforts put by the member's downlines.

In other words, a member earns nothing from his direct downline members during the first sale as the entire sales made by his/her downlines goes to that particular member's upline. The member can earn when his/her downlines recruit new users below them and they make sales. This continues on like a cycle in this compensation plan.

Compensations in Australian X Up MLM Software

1. Sponsor Bonus

A user earns the sponsor bonus only when he is able to reach the X-level. Various companies have different X-levels as this is set by the company.

2. Pass up income

Pass up income is earned when a distributor pass up the sales to his/her upline.

3. Fast Start Bonus

Usually, the MLM company sets a particular target to be reached within a specified time and whenever members are able to reach these targets within the specified time, their account is immediately credited with the fast start bonus.
